AFFIDAVIT OF SCOTT HUMINSKI, re: crimes and torts of Anthony Kunasek

NOW COMES, Scott Huminski ("Huminski"), and, under oath, swears, states and deposes as follows:

Introduction

- Huminski suffers extreme governmental retaliation for the content of core protected political First Amendment speech critical of government proximately caused by Anthony Kunasek.
- Pursuant to a request in open court in State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815, Lee County Court, by Anthony Kunasek ("Kunasek"), Huminski was prohibited from any and all communication with the entire State of Florida government for life in a court gag order retaliating for his core protected political expression [party in the "criminal case" State v. Huminski, 17-mm-815, Lee County Court is/was the State of Florida], to wit;

- Approximately 30 days prior to the death of Anthony Kunasek, Huminski filed details of what he considered serious crimes and torts of Mr. Kunasek in Equality Florida v. DeSantis (USDC, Northern District of Florida).
- In the two week period prior to the death of Anthony Kunasek on April 30, 2022, Huminski had contact with Kunasek, in person in Fort Myers, and requested that he

RECEIVED, 02/06/2023 09:26:23 AM, Clerk, Six District Court of Appeal

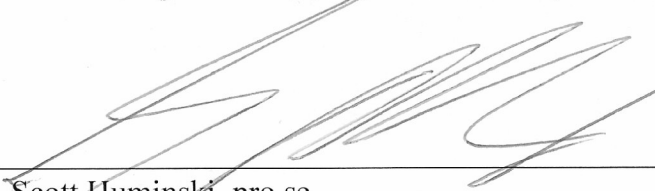

[Kunasek] moved to vacate the conviction/judgment in State v. Huminski, 17-mm-815, Lee County Court (“State v. Huminski” or “Huminski”), or that he consent to a motion filed by Huminski to vacate the conviction/judgment in Huminski because Huminski (1) was not served with a charging/commencement document in the case and that (2) the State of Florida was not listed as a party in a charging/commencement document and that (3) no valid commencement document exists in Huminski and that (4) no criminal prosecutorial authority signed any commencement document under oath of office and that (5) no charging document in Huminski exists that mentions a statutory felony nor misdemeanor that Huminski allegedly violated that would support a caption of State of Florida v. Huminski and that (6) no proof of service exists commencing the case in the record on appeal prepared by the clerk of the Lee County Court nor in the County Court docket and that (7) the Court in Huminski had no personal or subject matter jurisdiction over the contempt allegedly arising in Huminski v. Gilbert, 17-CA-421, 20th Circuit Court and that (8) the judgment/conviction entered in Huminski was void ab initio for lack of any and all jurisdiction and (9) all these unconstitutional issues were stated to Kunasek in April of 2022 prior to his suicide along with the proposals for cooperation on a remedy.

3. In response to Huminski’s request in the prior paragraph in April of 2022, Kunasek told Huminski, in person, that he wanted Huminski to suffer for life and that Huminski had no constitutional rights and that he [Kunasek] would rather die than to vacate the criminal judgment in Huminski to assist Huminski in any way that would relieve him of the ongoing harm, injury, prejudice and damage resulting from the conviction of a crime absent a statutory basis in Huminski and that State’s Attorney Amira Fox directed and controlled his [Kunasek’s] conduct related to State v. Huminski from it’s inception.
4. Attached hereto as Exhibit “A” is a copy of a draft Verified Motion to Intervene that Huminski prepared if Andrew Warren v. Desantis (USDC, Northern District of Florida) was appealed to the United States 11th Circuit Court of Appeals (an issue yet to be determined).
5. All statement of fact in the numbered paragraphs of Exhibit “A” are factual, true and correct.
6. Upon information and belief, the continuing criminal offense/tort doctrine applies to Kunasek’s conduct performed under the guidance, direction and supervision of Amira Fox, Esq. in State v. Huminski and the proceedings below are void ab initio concerning Huminski's filings/claims for want of Due Process.

7. Appellee's late appearance proximately inspired/caused this filing after the Kunasek estate was silent regarding the 14 motions filed by Huminski below and its silence to date in this appeal. Arguments proffered for the first time on appeal are not favored and as a general matter, a reviewing court will not consider points raised for the first time on appeal. Dorminey v. State, 314 So.2d 134 (Fla. 1975); Dade County Sch. Bd. v. Radio Station WQBA, 731 So.2d 638 (Fla.1999) (a claim not raised in the trial court will not be considered on appeal); Dober v. Worrell, 401 So.2d 1322 (Fla.1981) (appellate court will not consider issues not presented to the trial judge on appeal from final judgment on the merits). "In order to be preserved for further review by a higher court, an issue must be presented to the lower court and the specific legal argument or ground to be argued on appeal or review must be part of that presentation if it is to be considered preserved." Tillman v. State, 471 So.2d 32, 35 (Fla.1985). This affidavit introduces little or nothing that is not already in Huminski's Appellant's Appendix filed in this matter in the 2 DCA prior to transfer. With dismissal looming, Appellees appearance is suspicious.

Dated at Flagler County, Florida this 6th day of February, 2023.

VERIFIED MOTION TO INTERVENE

NOW COMES, Scott Huminski (“Huminski”), and, under oath, swears, states, deposes and moves to intervene pursuant to F.R.C.P. 24 as follows:

Introduction

- Both Huminski and the Plaintiff below suffer(ed) extreme governmental retaliation for the content of core protected political First Amendment speech critical of government.
- Plaintiff below was fired from his position as a State’s Attorney in retaliation for core protected political speech not consistent with the views of Mr. DeSantis.
- Huminski was prohibited from any and all communication with the entire State of Florida government for life in a court gag order retaliating for his core protected political expression [party in the “criminal case” State v. Huminski, 17-mm-815, Lee County Court is/was the State of Florida], to wit;

- The conduct of Mr. DeSantis set forth herein was founded in a quid pro quo favor to State’s Attorney Amira Fox for her saving an early DeSantis appointee, Sheriff Gregory Tony, from perjury charges in return he didn’t remove her for on-the-job felonies – forgery, official misconduct. F.S. 831.01, 838.022 (see below paragraphs 18-23)

1. A central gravamen of the Complaint below is that Ronald DeSantis engages in a systemic procedure, policy, custom or practice of silencing First Amendment speech via the use of notorious discriminatory tactics targeting speech of those of a specific viewpoint such as the Plaintiff below and Huminski, both staunch critics of policies of the Florida Governor and police state. In the case at Bar, one of those viewpoints is that residents of Florida have the right to freedom of speech absent the fear of governmental retaliation or viewpoint discrimination based upon a criteria such as the content of speech or, more succinctly, speech with content that discusses topics that the government is uncomfortable with, such as, what Plaintiff below and Huminski consider unconstitutional and oppressive conduct of Ronald Desantis and other government actors. The targeted speech of the Mr. Warren and Huminski is core protected political expression contradictory to the positions of Mr. DeSantis.
2. Huminski, a 10 year resident of Florida, is a long-time critic of the “plodding steer of the State” whether it be in Huminski v. Corsones, 396 F3d 53, 90 (2nd Cir 2005), or as the leader and founder of Scott X and the Constitution Commandos, an anti-Police-State rock band, with half a million views of their YouTube music videos. See Exhibit “A”, WHEN COURTS SUBVERT LAW TO BANISH A CRITIC, CHARLES LEVENDOSKY c. 2000 Casper (Wyo.) Star-Tribune (discussing Huminski’s First Amendment issues).
3. In retaliation for Huminski’s anti-Police-State First Amendment core protected political expression, Ronald DeSantis engaged in the following retaliatory conduct:
 - In 2021 and 2022 Ronald DeSantis engaged in a course of conduct in the Florida State courts that sought to silence any and all communication by Huminski with the entire State of Florida government for life that was preceded by the following patently illegal/unconstitutional deeds which DeSantis sought to make permanent along with the perpetual speech prohibition foisted upon Huminski,
 - Huminski was criminally prosecuted in State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815, Lee County Court absent a State of Florida charging document authored by the State or signed by a legitimate State of Florida prosecutor with the only document that could be deemed as a commencement/charging document being a show cause order copied from another Florida Court (the 20th Circuit Court), a true and correct copy of the order attached to an associated Court Paper are attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

- A state prosecutor did show up at hearings in State v. Huminski and, of course, successfully pursued the case to criminal conviction absent the filing of a charging document and without bothering to serve Huminski with a commencement document and absent a criminal statute.
- At Huminski's conviction, the State of Florida insisted upon an order barring Huminski from any contact/communication with the State of Florida for life. A true and correct copy of a court filing of Huminski detailing the lifetime First Amendment censoring of Huminski and other case details in State v. Huminski is attached hereto as Exhibit "C". Included in Exhibit "C" are papers forbidding Huminski from reporting crime to his local sheriff as another violation of the First Amendment absent any procedural or substantive Due Process. A First Amendment summary punishment. The State stipulated in the case that Huminski could speak to his local sheriff only if spoken to and reporting crime and other communication was prohibited. See excerpt prohibiting Huminski communication below, for life, whereby Huminski's local sheriff was a defendant in the "civil" case, Huminski v. Gilbert, et al., 17-cv-421, 20th Circuit Court, and the State of Florida was installed as the Plaintiff in State v. Huminski, a County Court misdemeanor contempt case based upon Huminski's alleged contempt in Gilbert in the Circuit (not County) Court despite Florida statute and authority specifying that hearing of contempt is private to the allegedly offended Court. The speech prohibition excerpted below specified no communication by a resident of the State, Huminski, with/to the entire State of Florida government – FOR LIFE. A bit over-broad considering the "parties" (i.e. one of which is the State of Florida).

Pre-sentence Investigation/Sentencing

Full/Partial

If probation has not been imposed, you must pay your financial obligation within the time allowed.

4. In 2021 and 2022 State court litigation in the 11th Judicial Circuit and the 3rd District Court of Appeal, Defendant DeSantis conspired with Florida Attorney General Ashley Moody to make the lifetime speech prohibition set forth in the prior paragraph permanent. This conduct appears to violate 18 U.S.C. 241, 242, a criminal statute that can not be prosecuted by Huminski nor Plaintiff below. Title 18 is enforced by the Department of Justice.

5. Huminski did not only suffer the same First Amendment viewpoint based discrimination as the Plaintiff below, and Due Process/Equal Protection violations – he was incarcerated for his speech “crime” and, as a fully disabled American for the last 10 years determined by the Social Security Administration, continues to suffer shock and injury to mind and body and the expected products of a void ab initio criminal judgment including prejudice in obtaining credit, housing, employment and continued harassment from Ronald DeSantis via on-going collection activities arising from the State v. Huminski void “criminal” judgment concerning fines, costs and fees that Defendant DeSantis fought vigorously to maintain in 2021 and 2022 in State courts. These ill-gotten gains and pecuniary windfalls demanded by the State, to this day, only apply to a statutory criminal conviction in a case that, in the best light, was a sui generis common law case – contempt, whereby, only the allegedly offended Court has the ability to hear and conduct a trial (i.e. only the 20th Circuit Court had subject matter jurisdiction to hear contempt in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, Et al., 17-CA-421, not a County Court criminal case captioned as State v. Huminki). See Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247 (FL 2 DCA 2019) (hearing contempt private to the allegedly offended Court). See also Exhibit “B”. See Generally, South Dade Farms v. Peters, 88 So. 2d 891 (Fla. 1956) (Approvingly quoting “ ... without referring the issues of fact or law [concerning contempt] to another tribunal or to a jury in the same tribunal...”, Bessette v. W.B. Conkey Co., 194 U.S. 324 337, 24 S. Ct. 665, 48 L.Ed. [997] 1005.). If a court enters an order prior to the filing of proper pleadings, the court lacks jurisdiction (i.e. the charging document in State v. Huminski, did not list the State as a Plaintiff nor was it signed by a State prosecutorial authority nor did it specify a criminal statute). Lovett v. Lovett, 93 Fla. 611, 112 So. 768, 775-76 (1927). Despite the lack of personal jurisdiction (no service in State v. Huminski) and no subject matter jurisdiction, Defendant DeSantis chose to conspire with Ashley Moody, Esq. to assure that Huminski was prejudiced with the void ab initio perpetual speech prohibition and criminal conviction for life in contravention of the United States Constitution.
6. Huminski’s long-time labeling of Florida as a Police State is not far from reality when criminal prosecutions commence absent the participation of the State, without service and proceed to judgment in the absence of any and all jurisdiction and banish all communication with the entire State of Florida government for life. What notoriously corrupt entity filed the commencement document in State v. Huminski remains a mystery although the forgery of the County Court charging document was accomplished by Assistant State's Attorney Anthony Kunasek (suicide 2022 related to these issues) and the paper contains no signature of an attorney representing the State of Florida, yet, a criminal conviction stands to this day per se prejudicing Huminski preventing him from obtaining a Florida Driver's License and causing him injury and prejudice. Ronald DeSantis has done his very best to engage in conduct in other fora to cover-up the patently illegal and unconstitutional conduct foisted upon Huminski set forth in material herein and this conduct proximately caused the suicide of State prosecutor Anthony Kunasek, Esq. who forged, but did not sign, the charging document in State v. Huminski. The suicide occurred 30 days after the issue was brought to the attention of the federal courts. Nothing seems to shock the consciousness in a police state pursuing an agenda of silencing dissent.

7. Defendant DeSantis has directed his attorney general to obsessively oppose any attempt by Huminski regarding a collateral attack upon State v. Huminski or any attempt to vindicate his rights related to State v. Huminski in bad faith and with unclean hands on the part of the State of Florida concerning their securing of a lifetime speech prohibition and criminal conviction absent their authoring of a commencement document and absent service in State v. Huminski and absent a criminal statute and with the perpetual governmental speech banishment(s) on the record in that matter. See Exhibit "C". In United States v. Stoneman, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit found a fundamental error occurs where a defendant stands convicted of conduct that is not criminal. If a defendant is convicted and punished for an act that law does not make criminal, it "inherently results in a complete miscarriage of justice" and presents "exceptional circumstances" which justify collateral relief. See United States v. Stoneman, 870 F.2d 102, 105 (3d Cir. 1989). Huminski was not criminally prosecuted and convicted under or pursuant to a Florida criminal statute.
8. Ronald DeSantis, did direct his Attorney General to use any and all methods to continue the First Amendment prohibitions foisted upon Huminski in State v. Huminski on or about September 1, 2021 and also directed his Attorney general to assure Huminski's lifetime speech prohibition and criminal misdemeanor conviction for contempt stands and prejudices him for life despite the absence of a criminal statute that Huminski allegedly violated.

9. F.S. 900.04 does not define a violation of the criminal codes of Florida and it does not define a statutory misdemeanor nor felony. See a true and correct docket excerpt describing Huminski's "criminal misdemeanor" conviction intending to silence speech in perpetuity,

"No Charge – No Level" above is not consistent with the violation of a criminal statute.

10. Huminski was forced to enter a plea by appointed counsel in the sui generis common law matter despite Huminski directions to counsel to move to dismiss on jurisdictional grounds and was placed on pre-trial supervised release upon initiation of State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815, Lee County Court, which is not a procedure applicable in an alleged sui generis common law contempt case arising in Huminski v. Gilbert, 17-CA-421, 20th Circuit Court, nor does any procedure/statute/authority exist in Florida that transfers contempt in a Circuit Court to a misdemeanor County Court. See true and correct excerpt from a minute order in State v. Huminski below (next page), and See excerpt from the Florida Attorney General's brief in Huminski v. State, 2D19-1914, 2/21/2020 authored by Ashley Moody, Esq./Chelsea Simms, Esq. also below,

Issue 4: Appellee concedes that imposition of the cost of prosecution was improper because contempt is a common law crime and the statutes governing contempt do not explicitly allow for the cost of prosecution to be imposed.

The term “crime” is misleading because all Florida authority and United States case law defines contempt as sui generis, neither a statutory misdemeanor nor felony. Spin.

Whoever hand-wrote “17-MM-815” on this order and filed it engaged in felony official misconduct.

11. Upon information and belief, the court minute excerpt from the prior paragraph details an illegal arraignment in a non-criminal case, illegal pre-trial conditions of release in a non-criminal case and an illegal prohibition of core protected political expression threatening incarceration for speech and, finally, the minute order speaks of an illegal transfer of contempt in a civil case in Circuit Court to a County Court misdemeanor case and someone hand wrote a misdemeanor County Court docket number on the above court filing absent any legal authority to do so and without a valid charging document. The caption in the prior paragraph minute excerpt is absolutely correct and legal, Huminski v. Gilbert, 17-CV-421. The State of Florida was never a proper party and no court paper exists commencing State v. Huminski that suggests otherwise.

12. The State filed no paper placing itself in the position of plaintiff in any case involving Huminski. The initiation of State v. Huminski was fraudulent, corrupt, absent a criminal statute and absent a State's charging document listing the State as a Plaintiff.
13. Upon information and belief, Mr. Warren would not engage in the above-mentioned conduct, however, Mr. DeSantis did engage in conduct in 2021 and 2022 attempting to legitimize and cover-up the aforementioned crimes and prosecutorial misconduct and to breathe life into a hopelessly void ab initio criminal judgment that silenced core protected political expression – for life – and failed to remove the State's Attorney engaging in the content herein. Mr. DeSantis also failed to remove the supervising Chief Assistant State's Attorney in charge of State v. Huminski, Amira Fox, Esq.. Amira Fox is now the 20th Circuit State's Attorney and can be prosecuted for felony official misconduct to this day for her involvement in State v. Huminski, a continuing criminal offense and an offense that can be prosecuted for up to 2 years after Ms. Fox leaves employment with the State.
14. The motivations of Ronald DeSantis related to Huminski's set of facts boils down to the silencing of dissent and core protected political expression that is protected at an elevated level and to provide a favor to a crony, Amira Fox. The perpetual speech prohibitions foisted upon Huminski are absolute as far as speech directed to the government of the State of Florida as ordered by the County Court in State v. Huminski at judgment/conviction. The speech prohibitions foisted upon the Plaintiff below are similar without the formal issuance of a final injunctive court gag order as in Huminski's scenario.
15. Huminski would be happy to withdraw this paper if the State concedes to address the void ab initio judgment in State v. Huminski (stipulating to its void ab initio status thus abolishing the speech prohibitions) and stops its collection activities related to the criminal conviction and removes the criminal conviction from all records. Civilized settlement is always a preferable route to litigation, but, it requires an admission of wrong-doing which governmental entities rarely succumb to.

16. Mr. DeSantis chose to retaliate against Mr. Warren for engaging in core protected political expression while at the same time he was endeavoring to protect prosecutors involved in forgery of court orders and First Amendment deprivations in State v. Huminski and cover-up the crimes and torts of these rogue prosecutors instead of removing them from office. Mr. Warren is known as a progressive prosecutor while the prosecutor's involved in the forgery of a County Court order, used to initiate State v. Huminski, are politically affiliated with Mr. DeSantis. Upon information and belief, Mr. DeSantis conducts himself based solely upon political affiliations concerning whether he removes a prosecutor or covers-up the crimes and civil right violations of a political ally/prosecutor.
17. Mr. DeSantis is a graduate of Yale and Harvard law and knows that State v. Huminski was initiated with a forged commencement document which was central to the 2021 and 2022 State court matters mentioned above whereby he was a defendant. The nature of the forgery was sworn to in the two State Court matters and is sworn to in this paper in this appeal. Yet, Mr. DeSantis has taken no adverse action against the far right Republican prosecutors involved, to the contrary, he has endeavored to support the misconduct in State Court actions and cover-up the official crime of State prosecutors – as opposed to removing the prosecutors for on-the-job felonies.
18. Upon information and belief, Mr. DeSantis has the power to remove officials from office that are involved in the enforcement and collection activities related to the void ab initio judgment/conviction in State v. Huminski and refuses to do so because they are political allies. This is especially true of the supervising prosecutor in State v. Huminski, Amira Fox, Esq..
19. Mr. DeSantis accepts advice, counsel and recommendations from his crony Amira Fox, https://www.flgov.com/wp-content/uploads/orders/2019/EO_19-69.pdf and Ms. Fox opined in favor of removal of Mr. Warren from office, <https://www.winknews.com/2022/08/04/desantis-suspends-state-attorney-andrew-warren-> says-hes-not-enforcing-law/ and Ms. Fox is otherwise connected to/or supportive of Mr. DeSantis, <https://www.fortmyersbeachtalk.com/2021/06/16/desantis-sending-police-to-mexican-border/> , <https://www.naplesnews.com/story/news/crime/2020/07/01/state-attorney-requests-complaint-against-candidate-reassigned/5355223002/> , <https://criminaldefenseattorneytampa.com/track-your-case/state-attorneys-offices-in-florida/> , <https://www.democraticunderground.com/10142957259> . As far as the forgery of a Court order supervised by Amira Fox, Mr. DeSantis has been reciprocally supportive of Amira Fox in the 2 aforementioned State Court proceedings and instead of removing her for her crimes against the justice system, he and his attorney took no action concerning Amira Fox's crimes and misconduct.

20. Mr. DeSantis assigned a perjury case against his 2019 appointed sheriff of Broward County, Gregory Tony, to his trusted ally Amira Fox who then assigned it to Anthony Kunasek. Mr. Kunasek is the actual person who engaged in the forgery in State v. Huminski under the guidance and supervision of Ms. Fox which eventually led to Mr. Kunasek committing suicide in spring of 2022. These 3 individuals (DeSantis, Fox, Kunasek) seem to work well in concert and cooperation with each other when an appointee of Mr. DeSantis is investigated for perjury. Of Course, the Governor's appointee was let off the hook. It seems only right for the Governor to re-pay the favor and not remove Amira Fox from office concerning the felony forgery/official misconduct in State v. Huminski. Political favors need to be repaid. <https://www.floridabulldog.org/2022/04/state-attorneys-perjury-report-broward-sheriff-tony-omitted-key-facts/> , <https://www.miamiherald.com/news/local/crime/article257905813.html> , <https://www.local10.com/news/local/2022/09/14/florida-ethics-commission-finds-probable-cause-that-broward-sheriff-tony-lied-misused-position/> , <https://www.nbcmiami.com/news/local/ethics-commission-finds-broward-sheriff-gregory-tony-gave-false-info-misused-position/2858217/> , <https://www.sun-sentinel.com/opinion/commentary/fl-op-col-bousquet-sheriff-tony-outrage-700-words-20220916-zn6ibkqbhrdhbalvcucxclpgom-story.html> , <https://www.pressreader.com/usa/south-florida-sun-sentinel-palm-beach-sunday/20220918/281762748111519> .

21. A quid pro quo existed concerning the DeSantis appointed Broward Sheriff's perjury outcome from Amira Fox/Mr. Kunasek and the forgery/official misconduct in State v. Huminski and Mr. DeSantis' non-removal of Amira Fox for on-the-job felonies. Amira Fox and Mr. Kunasek saved a DeSantis appointee from criminal prosecution and, in return, Mr. DeSantis has not removed Amira Fox from office for her felonies targeting the justice system. Good old-fashioned corruption by team DeSantis – Fox – Kunasek.

22. Upon information and belief, if Mr. Warren rescued Sheriff Tony from felony perjury charges like Amira Fox did, he would still be in office. Similarly, if Amira Fox did not rescue Mr. DeSantis' appointee, she may have been removed for the forgery in State v. Huminski. It pays to do political favors. Mr. DeSantis hand-selected Sheriff Tony and he hand-selected Amira Fox to cover-up the crimes/improprieties of his appointee. In 2021 and 2022, Mr. DeSantis paid back Ms. Fox for the favor and did not remove her from office for felony misconduct despite his knowledge of the crimes set forth in sworn court papers. Upon information and belief, the guilt of Sheriff Tony was obvious, as obvious as the felony forgery and felony official misconduct of Amira Fox similarly protected by Mr. DeSantis to pay back a favor.

23. Upon information and belief, in 2019, the newly elected and narrowly elected new Governor of Florida could not have an early and major appointee, the Broward County Sheriff, being prosecuted for felony perjury and the “fix” was in by the freshman Governor ... a favor he repaid to Amira Fox with not removing her from office for forgery of a County Court order in State v. Huminski and felony official misconduct.

Fox v. Tyson Foods, Inc., 519 F.3d 1298, 1302-03 (11th Cir. 2008) (quoting Chiles v. Thornburgh, 865 F.2d 1197, 1213 (11th Cir. 1989)).

Here, Huminski's request for intervention satisfies the requirements of Rule 24(a)(2) for intervention as of right.

1. Huminski's Motion to Intervene is Timely

The Eleventh Circuit has identified several factors relevant to determining whether a request for intervention is timely:

- (1) the length of time during which the proposed intervenor knew or reasonably should have known of the interest in the case before moving to intervene;
- (2) the extent of prejudice to the existing parties as a result of the proposed intervenor's failure to move for intervention as soon as it knew or reasonably should have known of its interest;
- (3) the extent of prejudice to the proposed intervenor if the motion is denied; and
- (4) the existence of unusual circumstances militating either for or against a determination that their motion was timely.

Georgia v. U.S. Army Corps of Eng'rs, 302 F.3d 1242, 1259 (11th Cir. 2002) (citing Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1213).

This Circuit has recognized that the requirement of timeliness "must have accommodating flexibility toward both the court and the litigants if it is to be successfully employed to regulate intervention in the interest of justice." U.S. Army Corps of Eng'rs, 302 F.3d at 1259 (quoting McDonald v. E.J. Lavino Co., 430 F.2d 1065, 1074 (5th Cir. 1970)). Huminski has moved for intervention prior to the appearance of the Appellee in this appeal.

2. Huminski has a Substantial Legal Interest in this Litigation

For an applicant's interest in the subject matter of the litigation to be cognizable under Rule 24(a)(2), it must be "direct, substantial and legally protectable." U.S. Army Corps of Eng'rs, 302 F.3d at 1249; see also Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1212-13 (noting that the focus of a Rule 24 inquiry is "whether the intervenor has a legally protectable interest in the litigation."). The inquiry on this issue "is 'a flexible one, which focuses on the particular facts and circumstances surrounding each [motion for intervention].'" Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1214 (quoting United States v. Perry Cnty. Bd. of Educ., 567 F.2d 277, 279 (5th Cir. 1978)).

Huminski has a legally protectable interest in this litigation as a party impacted as greatly, or more so, by the State of Florida's retaliatory zeal to silence speech based upon discriminatory or viewpoint based criteria inconsistent with views of the current administration. Huminski's speech, critical of government, is core protected political expression – dissent, afforded the highest level of First Amendment protection.

The Court orders issued in State v. Huminski have the same chilling effect upon Huminski's speech that the speech prohibitions foisted upon the Plaintiff below – retaliation and silencing of speech that the government finds distasteful or disagrees with. The speech prohibition against Plaintiff below was resolved with one event, he was fired, however, Huminski's speech prohibition will linger in perpetuity. Mr. Warren's success in this appeal, or lack thereof, will create stare decisis that will impact Huminski's redress concerning his similar retaliatory constitutional deprivations which includes the threat of incarceration for contempt if he merely communicates with the entire government of Florida in perpetuity.

3. The Disposition of the Instant Litigation May Impair Huminski's Ability to Protect his Interest

Huminski's ability to protect his substantial legal interest would be impaired absent intervention. Federal decisions interpreting and applying the provisions of the First Amendment, Due Process and Equal Protection are an important enforcement tool related to the Plaintiff belows' and Huminski's claims concerning the discriminatory and retaliatory silencing of speech and content-related silencing of speakers, i.e. speech critical of government. Huminski's interests in this appeal align with the interests of Mr. Warren.

The outcome of this case, including the potential for further appeals or writs by existing parties or proceedings below after a remand, implicates stare decisis concerns that warrant Huminski's intervention. See Stone v. First Union Corp., 371 F. 3d 1305, 1309-10 (11th Cir. 2004) (recognizing that potential for a negative stare decisis effect “may supply that practical disadvantage which warrants intervention of right”) (citing Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1214); see also United States v. City of Los Angeles, 288 F.3d 391, 400 (9th Cir. 2002) (holding that amicus curiae status may be insufficient to protect the rights of an applicant for intervention “because such status does not allow [the applicant] to raise issues or arguments formally and gives it no right of appeal”). While the existing parties to the litigation will not be prejudiced by Huminski's intervention, Huminski will be prejudiced if his request for intervention is denied. This intervention motion is prior to an appearance by Appellee.

4. The Existing Parties Do Not Adequately Represent Huminski's Interests

The fourth and final element to justify intervention of right is inadequate representation of the proposed intervenor's interest by existing parties to the litigation because the background facts present a slightly different approach to the same legal issue – out of control governmental censorship and retaliation for core protected political expression. This element is satisfied if the proposed intervenor “shows that representation of his interest ‘may be’ inadequate.” Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1214 (quoting Trbovich v. United Mine Workers of Am., 404 U.S. 528, 538 n. 10 (1972)). The burden on the proposed intervenor to show that existing parties cannot adequately represent its interest is “minimal.” Stone, 371 F.3d 1311; U.S. Army Corps of Eng'rs, 302 F.3d at 1259 (citing Trbovich, 404 U.S. at 538 n.10). Any doubt concerning the propriety of allowing intervention should be resolved in favor of the proposed intervenors because it allows the court to resolve all related disputes in a single action. Loyd v. Ala. Dep't of Corr., 176 F.3d 1336, 1341 (11th Cir. 1999); Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Falls Chase Special Taxing Dist., 983 F.2d 211, 216 (11th Cir. 1993).

Huminski's interest is in the enforcement of the First Amendment, Due Process and Equal Protection and to advance the public interest in eliminating speech discrimination and prohibitions in the context of a court order unlike the claims of the Plaintiff below that do not involve the speech prohibition being set forth in a Court order that can lead to incarceration pursuant to common law contempt. Huminski's First Amendment deprivation is slightly more despotic and egregious as his prospective speech can result in contempt and incarceration in perpetuity if he dares communicate with the entire government of Florida. It appears that the Plaintiff below suffers a speech prohibition akin to Huminski v. Corsones, 396 F.3d 53, 90 (2nd Cir 2005) and the illegal notice against trespass that was central to that case and the State v. Huminski Court order gagging Huminski carries with it the same penalties as the Notice Against Trespass issued in Corsones – incarceration.

Holding the position of a State prosecutor has seemed to create a “First-Amendment-free-zone” spoken of in Corsones. id. At 93,

*“The Notices Against Trespass in effect prohibit indefinitely any and all expressive activity in which Huminski might want to engage in and around Rutland state courthouses. These notices are thus pervasive enough to be viewed as creating a “First-Amendment-Free Zone” for Huminski alone in and around the Rutland courts. The defendants' singling out of Huminski for exclusion, thereby permitting all others to engage in similar activity in and around the courts, suggests to us that the trespass notices are not reasonable. Such broad restrictions are generally frowned upon 93*93 even in nonpublic forums. Cf. Bd. of Airport Comm'rs v. Jews for Jesus, Inc., 482 U.S. 569, 575, 107 S.Ct. 2568, 96 L.Ed.2d 500 (1987) (“We think it obvious that ... a ban [on First Amendment activities at an airport] cannot be justified even if [the airport] were a nonpublic forum because no conceivable governmental interest would justify such an absolute prohibition of speech.”).*”

Huminski, now faces a slightly different zone of speech exclusion – any speech directed to the entire government of the State of his residence. In summary, Huminski meets the Rule 24(a) requirements for intervention as of right.

Huminski Meets the Requirements for Permissive Intervention

Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b) provides for permissive intervention as an alternative basis for Huminski's intervention in this action. Rule 24(b) states, in relevant part:

(1) On timely motion, the court may permit anyone to intervene who:

(A) is given a conditional right to intervene by a federal statute; or

(B) has a claim or defense that shares with the main action a common question of law or fact.

(2) On timely motion, the court may permit a federal or state governmental officer or agency to intervene if a party's claim or defense is based on:

(A) a statute or executive order administered by the officer or agency; or

(B) any regulation, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made under the statute or executive order.

(3) In exercising its discretion, the court must consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the original parties' rights.

The Eleventh Circuit has established a two-part test to guide the Court's discretion as to whether a party may intervene pursuant to Rule 24(b)(2): the applicant must show that "(1) his application to intervene is timely; and (2) his claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common." Chiles, 865 F.2d at 1213 (citing Sellers v. United States, 709 F.2d 1469, 1471 (11th Cir. 1983)).

As discussed above, Huminski's application for intervention in this litigation is timely and Huminski's participation would neither unduly delay the proceedings nor prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties. Additionally, Huminski's claims against the defendant share common questions of law with Plaintiff below's claims, and rest upon common questions of law related to censorship and constitutional issues flowing from content-based censorship and retaliation causing a chilling effect. Plaintiff below's punishment for engaging in expression was limited to removal from office and can not suffer further punishment, in contrast, the Court gag order prohibiting any speech with the entire State government embodies a looming threat of prosecution and incarceration for contempt. Huminski's First Amendment peril and associated punishment is perpetual imposing a lifelong chilling effect upon speech/expression.

By avoiding multiple lawsuits/appeals and coordinating discovery, intervention will lend efficiency to further proceedings.

Accordingly, Huminski meets the requirements for permissive intervention.

Huminski understands all too well why the United States has the highest incarceration rate in the world. Government officials are willing to engage in felonies to attack targeted persons, create false crimes with felonies like forgery and then are supported by high ranking executives such as Governor DeSantis.

III. CONCLUSION/RELIEF REQUESTED

For the foregoing reasons, the Court should grant the Motion to Intervene (i) as a matter of right pursuant to Rule 24(a)(2), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or, in the alternative, (ii) permissively pursuant to Rule 24(b) Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

WHEN COURTS SUBVERT LAW TO BANISH A CRITIC

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Charles Levendosky, editorial page editor of the Casper (Wyo.) Star-Tribune, has a national reputation for First Amendment commentary. His email address is levendos(AT-sign)trib.com.)

By CHARLES LEVENDOSKY c. 2000 Casper (Wyo.) Star-Tribune

In Vermont, a number of state judges and one federal judge don't think citizens have the right to attend criminal or civil trials -- at least not those citizens who criticize judges or the decisions they make. Citizen-reporter Scott Huminski has been summarily barred from Vermont courts for his criticisms.

His case is a lesson in how those in power, even when they know they are wrong can subvert constitutional guarantees of liberty.

Although Huminski transports antiques for a living, for the past three years he has been on a crusade watching how his state courts operate. He attends state court proceedings and then publicizes what he considers misconduct with posters placed in the windows of his Bennington home and in the windows of his van. He also distributes information about the proceedings to attorneys and government officials.

One of Huminski's posters contained the headline, "Judge Corsones: Butcher of the Constitution" and beneath it, Huminski listed five reasons why he made that claim. One of the reasons, Huminski charged was that Rutland District Court Judge Nancy Corsones "strips defendants of the right to defense counsel."

That poster resulted in him being banished from "all lands and property under the control of the Supreme Court and the Commissioner of Buildings and General Services, including the Rutland District Court, parking areas, and lands."

Judge M. Patricia Zimmerman of the Rutland District Court signed this sweeping trespass notice on May 27, 1999. The Bennington County Sheriff's Department served Huminski with the notice.

Clearly, Huminski is a gadfly, troubling the plodding steer of state. He may be bothersome, but he isn't a criminal. He has done nothing illegal. He has only exercised his rights as a U.S. citizen.

Zimmerman's trespass order is the third one issued against Huminski, but it is the broadest. The first trespass notice, issued only days earlier, prohibited Huminski from entering the Rutland District Court or its parking lot. The second trespass order barred him from entering Corsones' property.

If Huminski were to even park his van in the parking lot of a Vermont court, he could be arrested immediately.

The trespass notices were filed for one reason only -- Huminski criticized a state judge and her decisions.

Law enforcement officials make no claim that Huminski was disruptive, a public nuisance, or interfered with the administration of justice. He was quiet and attentive while in the courtroom and the courthouse. He neither picketed the courthouse, nor engaged in vulgar or obscene expression while there. He simply posted his opinions.

The trespass orders have worked. They have kept a citizen-reporter from engaging in public debate about his state courts. Huminski has not been close to a Vermont court for nearly a year. His reporting has been silenced.

Instead, Huminski filed a lawsuit in a federal district court against Rutland and Bennington law enforcement officials claiming they have violated the Vermont Constitution and his First Amendment rights to attend and report on court proceedings. He acted as his own attorney. And lost.

On Oct. 20, 1999, U.S. District Court Judge J.G. Murtha, apparently blinded by Huminski's harsh criticism of a judge, dismissed his claims. Murtha concluded that Huminski had "failed to demonstrate a clearly established federal right which the defendants violated." Never mind that the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled time and again that the people have a right to criticize government officials.

In his decision, Murtha quoted a U.S. Supreme Court case having to do with picketing near a courthouse -- a very narrow decision that has nothing at all to do the facts of Huminski's case. No one asserted that Huminski had picketed the Rutland District Court. He hadn't.

The Vermont Constitution, in Article 13 of its Declaration of Rights, states: "That the people have a right to freedom of speech, and of writing and publishing their sentiments, concerning the transactions of government, and therefore the freedom of the press ought not to be restrained." How clear can it be? Courtroom proceedings are "transactions of government." And "the people have a right ... of writing and publishing their sentiments" concerning those transactions.

Now, Huminski has Robert Corn-Revere, an experienced and well-respected First Amendment attorney from Washington, D.C., handling his case. They have filed an appeal with the U.S. Second Court of Appeals.

According to Corn-Revere, he hopes that his client gets "a clear statement from the Second Circuit that local governmental officials don't have the ability to simply exclude people from the courthouses in the state of Vermont.

"More specifically, we would hope to get a ruling that eliminates the ability to simply use mechanisms like trespass law to silence critics of local judges. In short, what we're looking for is a clear declaration from the Second Circuit involving the fundamental First Amendment rights that are at stake in this case in the situation we're presented with here."

These Vermont law enforcement officials and judges have the astounding gall to seriously think that they can bar a citizen from the state courts for all time because that citizen criticized a judge. They make no bones about it.

In the briefs filed with the court of appeals, the attorneys for the sheriff's department, city law enforcement and city officials baldly state they have such a right.

And they note in their briefs that Huminski "has never attempted to enter courthouse property since service of the (trespass) notice, and thus has neither been denied access nor suffered any criminal sanction." The briefs assert, "Huminski has suffered no actual harm."

The series of events involving Huminski might be worse than a collusion of arrogance on the part of those in power to silence a critic.

Widespread ignorance of the foundation of liberty upon which this nation is built -- especially on the part of judges and law enforcement officials could eventually bring our nation crumbling down -- as if an earthquake had fractured the structural basis of our constitutional values. An earthquake of ignorance.

Arrogance or ignorance? That isn't much of a choice. Either way, Huminski has been unfairly and illegally persecuted by the power structure in Vermont. The harm he has suffered, all of us share. The outcome of this case affects us all.

The FORGERY with the digitally “lifted” judicial signature with a “lifted” date. The felony forger didn’t bother to change the date of the signature to make a more believable forgery. A reckless criminal who may have experience in getting away with forged court orders in the 20th Circuit without being challenged before.

Complacency for this felon led to a sloppy crime.

Notably, it is humanly impossible to replicate a signature that is digitally perfect on 6/5/2017 and 6/30/2017 and it is impossible to do it with digital precision related to its alignment with the other text in the document. A bold and very poor forgery also constituting official misconduct which can be prosecuted for 2 years after the forger leaves office or ends employment with the State of Florida.

FELONY FORGERY OF JUDICIAL RECUSAL ORDER # 2

Judicial recusal order forgery number two filed two weeks after the legitimate order and over an hour after the first forgery in this series. Apparently the forgery felon was not pleased with their initial forgery draft and came up with this new version with (1) the original date and time filing stamp is digitally erased and replaced with a new date and time an hour and a half later than the first forgery, (2) the Circuit Court docket number has been restored contrary to the first forgery above, (3) it is stamped "COPY" at a different portion of the document than the first forgery above and (4) the original distribution list has been restored absent the date and initials in the left margin next to the distribution list that was digitally erased by the forgery felon. See next page.

COUNT 1: INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

In the Order on Defendant Mike Scott's Motion to Dismiss and Motion for Protective Order, SCOTT HUMINSKI was specifically ordered that any further pleadings be signed by a licensed attorney representing the Plaintiff (Paragraph 7). In the Order on Scribd, Inc's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Verified Complaint for Declaratory, Injunctive and Other Relief, SCOTT HUMINSKI was specifically ordered not to file any additional documents or materials of any nature with the Court unless the filing was signed by an attorney and specifically provided that an Order to Show Cause might be entered against him if he did so (Paragraph 2). SCOTT HUMINSKI has continued to file multiple documents in the Court file in contradiction to these Orders as evidenced by the attached composite Exhibit C.

COUNT 2: INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

In the Order on Defendant Mike Scott's Motion to Dismiss and Motion for Protective Order, SCOTT HUMINSKI was specifically prohibited from directly contacting, communicating with or otherwise serving materials directly on Sheriff Scott, his agents and employees (see Paragraph 1 & 2). SCOTT HUMINSKI was specifically ordered to direct such contact to counsel for Mike Scott (see Paragraph 2). SCOTT HUMINSKI has repeatedly violated this Order by contacting Sheriff Scott, his agents and employees since the execution of the Court's orders – see the emails attached as composite Exhibit D.

NOW, THEREFORE, you SCOTT HUMINSKI are hereby ORDERED to appear before this court before Judge KRIER on THURSDAY, 6/29/17, at 1:30 p.m., in Room 4H of the Lee County Courthouse, located at 1700 Monroe Street, Ft. Myers, Florida 33901, to be arraigned. THIS IS A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING. A subsequent trial will be scheduled requiring Respondent to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of this court for violation of the above Orders. Punishment, if imposed, may include a fine and incarceration. Should the court determine, based on the evidence presented at trial, that the conduct of SCOTT HUMINSKI warrants sanctions for civil contempt in addition to or instead of indirect criminal contempt, the court reserves the right to find him guilty of civil contempt and impose appropriate civil sanctions.

IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR as set forth above, a warrant for your arrest or a writ of bodily attachment may be issued to effectuate your appearance.

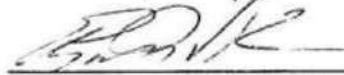

The court hereby appoints the STATE ATTORNEY's OFFICE to prosecute the case.

The Court hereby advises SCOTT HUMINSKI that he is entitled to be represented by counsel and if he can't afford an attorney, that one may be appointed for him in this criminal contempt proceeding ONLY (not in the civil Case). This Court hereby appoints the PUBLIC DEFENDER's OFFICE to provisionally represent SCOTT HUMINSKI at the above Arraignment proceeding pending a determination of indigency. This Court anticipates that SCOTT HUMINSKI will be found to be indigent.

If you are a person with a disability who needs any accommodation to participate in this proceeding, you are entitled, at no cost to you, to the provision of certain assistance. Please contact: Court Administration at least 7 days before your scheduled court appearance, or immediately upon receiving this notification if the time before the scheduled appearance is less than 7 days; if you are hearing or voice impaired, call 711.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Sheriff of this County serve this Order to Show Cause by delivering copies to SCOTT HUMINSKI, with proof of Sheriff's service.

Exhibit “C”

In The
Third District Court of Appeal

SCOTT HUMINSKI,)	Number: 3d21-1920
APPELLANT ,)
v.)
STATE OF FLORIDA, ET AL,) APPELLEES.)

EMERGENCY VERIFIED MOTION FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF, RULE
9.300(c)

NOW COMES, Appellant Scott Huminski (“Huminski”), and pursuant to F.R.A.P. 9.300(c) moves, states, deposes, and swears, as follows,

1. The gravamen of the complaint in the Court below is that the State of Florida secured a void judgment in State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815, Lee County Court absent authoring or filing any commencement document that would vest jurisdiction in the County Court and absent standing to prosecute which is absolutely true and correct because the County Court commencement document was merely an altered court order from Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al., 17-CA-421, 20th Circuit, created on 6/30/2017, after modification of an original and legitimate order issued in Huminski v. Gilbert, et al. on 6/5/2017.

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit “A” is a true and correct copy of Huminski’s affidavit as filed in this appeal on 3/7/2022, AFFIDAVIT OF S. HUMINSKI #2 RE: State’s forgery of court orders/unclean hands, which contain true and correct fact statements as to the use of forgery to initiate State v. Huminski.

3. The commencement document in State v. Huminski attached hereto in Exhibit “A” was not signed by any legitimate State prosecutorial authority.

4. The commencement document in State v. Huminski attached hereto in Exhibit “A” was not authored by any legitimate State prosecutorial authority and it is a modified version of an order issued in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al., a civil case where the State of Florida was not a party.

5. The commencement document in State v. Huminski attached hereto in Exhibit “A” was not filed with 117 pages of attachments that it referenced and that do exist in the Circuit Court version of the order in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al..

6. Not only was Huminski never served in State v. Huminski, 117 pages of attachments were never filed with the commencement document or served.

7. There exists no proof of service in State v. Huminski.

8. Huminski was never served with the 117 pages of attachments in the version of the commencement document that exists in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al. and the server of this document (in the Circuit Court matter) testified at hearing/trial that he did not serve any attachments.

9. Huminski was placed on pre-trial supervision in State v. Huminski.

10. Huminski, at conviction in State v. Huminski, was assessed by the Court every cost and fees that would apply only to criminal convictions in Florida.

11. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" is a true and correct copy of the final judgment form from State v. Huminski listing the costs and fees levied upon Huminski.

12. Exhibit "A" contains true and correct versions of 3 judicial recusal orders, two of which are forgeries. The only authentic order exists in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert.

13. Exhibit "B" contains a term that was requested by the State at trial that Huminski be barred from contacting the State of Florida or his local sheriff concerning any matter subsequent to conviction which prevented Huminski from reporting several crimes in his town of residence which was solely served by a Sheriff's Department.

14. The no contact with his local sheriff provision of the previous paragraph was part of Huminski's pre-trial supervision, however, the State later stipulated that Huminski could contact law enforcement to report crime.

15. A true and correct copy of the stipulation mentioned in the prior paragraph is attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

16. All materials and fact represented in the attached papers filed herewith are true and correct.

17. Huminski asserts with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein all papers filed by him as a pro se litigant in this appeal.

18. This paper requests emergency relief because the State is; (1) continuing to attempt to breathe life into a hopelessly void judgment in State v. Huminski, (2) continues enforcement efforts concerning the void judgment and (3) continues to this day to attempt to profit off the ill-gotten gains related to the void judgment via ongoing and relentless collection efforts causing Huminski prejudice and discrimination in employment, housing, obtaining credit and all harm, injury and prejudice that flows from a criminal conviction.

19. Huminski has been confirmed fully disabled by the Social Security administration and medical providers Leonard Lado, M.D., Karen Huffer and Rebecca Potter, LMHC, for over 10 years related to his PTSD, General Anxiety Disorder, social phobia and the State's continuing conduct related to the void judgment continues to cause Huminski shock and injury to body and mind. The collection activities of the State must be enjoined to mitigate and perhaps end the injury, damage and prejudice to Huminski related to the State's obsession with the void judgment.

20. Huminski is unable to obtain a Florida Driver's License with outstanding criminal fines and fees causing him harm and prejudice and many of the costs/fines/fees foisted upon Huminski related to the void judgment are only criminal in nature as set forth by the statutes used to justify the imposition of them.

21. Attached hereto as Exhibit "D" is a true and correct copy of the appearance of the public defender in State v. Huminski mistakenly citing inapplicable criminal rules in a sui generis common law case. Upon information and belief treating contempt in routine civil cases as a statutory criminal offense in the 20th Circuit is standard operating procedure (SOP) that even the entire public defender office has accepted as commonplace and proper. Huminski directed the public defender not to fall for this governmental scheme without success because when a prosecutor and the presiding judge are "on board" concerning the practice of converting contempt in a civil case with a "CA" designation to a routine statutory crime, an over-burdened public defender has little recourse or time to object. Huminski's counsel at the time was a Georgetown Law School graduate.

22. Attached hereto as Exhibit "E" is a true and correct copy of a "minutes" entry in State v. Huminski (although not captioned in State v. Huminski) predating the existence of that case memorializing the State's plot to transfer of the civil "CA" case to a "criminal" County Court case to terrorize Huminski as follows,

"Also to be discussed transfer of civil case to criminal".

Upon information and belief cases such as Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al., 17-CA-421 never get transferred to "criminal" County Court in jurisdictions other than the 20th Circuit. County Courts (courts of inferior and limited jurisdiction) do not have jurisdiction to take over matters from the Circuit Courts and no Rule, Statute or other legitimate authority provides for such a transfer in the Courts of Florida.

23. Attached hereto as Exhibit "F" is a true and correct copy of the ruling in Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247, whereby the Second District Court of Appeal found that hearing and trying contempt is private to the offended Court.

24. Upon information and belief, the Court in Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247 statement that,

"§ 38.22, Fla. Stat. (2018) ("Every court may punish contempts against it . . ." (emphasis added))", concisely settles all debate related to this appeal, the matter below and all collateral cases because the Court's emphasis on the words "against it" (ie. Circuit Court) convincingly exemplifies and determines that all papers filed in this appeal and the Courts below by the State were filed for the sole reason to vex, further frivolous arguments, abuse the criminal justice system and to burden the Florida Courts all prejudicial to the administration of justice. Sanctions should be levied under this Courts inherent disciplinary and supervisory powers.

25. On September 17, 2021 when Huminski hired counsel, Huminski directed the late Attorney Steele thru his alleged assistant Ronald Humphreys to file an appearance and continuance related to the scheduled hearing and counsel filed an appearance several hours after the hearing that dismissed the case below and caused this appeal. Upon information and belief, this advice came solely from Mr. Humphreys without participation of Huminski's late attorney.

26. On September 21, 2021, subsequent to the hearing dismissing the case below, Huminski directed counsel to file a motion for emergency relief to achieve the goals of this paper and Huminski never heard back from counsel despite repeatedly requesting this relief continually from counsel during the last six months.

27. Huminski has never spoken to Attorney Steele and has never engaged in any 2-way conversation with his former late attorney in any fora.

28. On dozens of occasions over the last 6 months Huminski requested counsel advise him; (1) why all legal fees in this matter went to the closely-held corporation of his assistant, Ronald Humphrey, Lawstaff, Inc. (a corporation headquartered at the private residence of Mr. Humphreys), (2) why there wasn't a timely appearance in the Court below, (3) why unclean hands was not proffered after the State's answer brief and (4) why counsel was not filing for emergency relief related to the collection activities of the State and collateral issues to which Huminski only received the response of silence from counsel or his alleged assistant, Mr. Humphreys.

29. To this date, Huminski believes Mr. Humphreys, a non-attorney, was sole counsel on this case and he received all client funds related to representation into his corporation Lawstaff, Inc. and paid a stipend to John Contini, a disbarred attorney, for referral of this case to him and paid a stipend to Attorney Steele for using his Bar credentials. (See Huminski's 2 notices of retention of counsel filed on September 17, 2021 and September 20, 2021 in the Court below)

30. Mr. Humphreys verbally advised Huminski to attend the hearing of September 21, 2021 pro se in a case where a vexatious litigant issue was pending. Upon information and belief, Mr. Steele nor any licensed attorney would advise a client in such a manner and this advice was a product of the unauthorized practice of law, UPL.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Huminski asserts the arguments of his late attorney filed in this matter especially including the bad faith argument posed by counsel, or Mr. Humphreys, in the motion for attorney fees.

State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815, Lee County Court, is a hopelessly void criminal judgment (in a sui generis common law case) that was commenced; (1) absent the filing of a pleading authored by a prosecutorial representative of the State, (2) absent a signature of an authorized representative of the State, (3) absent service upon Huminski and (4) filing in contravention to F.S. § 831.01 (felony forgery) and F.S. § 838.022 (felony official misconduct) acts of moral turpitude, bad faith and justifying a finding of unclean hands. See generally Huminski's affidavit AFFIDAVIT OF S. HUMINSKI #2 RE: State's forgery of court orders/unclean hands filed in this matter on 3/7/2022. Accord Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247. See Exhibit "F".

VOID JUDGMENTS

In Florida, a "void judgment" is so defective that it is deemed never to have had legal force and effect. Sterling Factors Corp. v. U.S. Bank Nat. Ass'n, 968 So. 2d 658, 665 (Fla. 2d DCA 2007)

Trial courts "lack jurisdiction" until proper pleadings are filed. Lovett v. Lovett, 112 So. 768, 776 (Fla. 1927) accord Lewis v. Lewis, 78 So.2d 711, 712. The government's relied upon document to commence State v. Huminski is not a proper pleading. A trial court's lack of subject-matter jurisdiction makes its judgment void. NWT v. LHD (In re DNHW), 955 So.2d 1236, 1238 (Fla. 2d DCA 2007)

CONTEMPT A SUI GENERIS COMMON LAW OFFENSE IS NOT PROSECUTED BY THE STATE AS A PLAINTIFF

Concerning sui generis common law offenses, "Proceedings for contempt are sui generis (of their own class) in their nature and not strictly either civil or criminal, as those terms are commonly used. But courts have classified and termed them, "civil" and "criminal."" Dangel on Contempt, page 5, Section 12. The State's positioning themselves as a Plaintiff in State v. Huminski when they were never a party in the case containing the alleged contempt, Huminsk v. Town of Gilbert, et al., was accomplished by notoriously corrupt conduct that remains a mystery absent a criminal inquest into the forgery and official misconduct that the State has successfully obfuscated so far in the Court below and with its papers filed in this Court.

The Florida Supreme Court did not get it wrong in the contempt case cited above Lewis v. Lewis, State v. Lewis-would have been just as corrupt of a caption as State v. Huminski. Whatever underhanded method was used to get the case docketed as State v. Huminski, it constitutes an attack upon the integrity of the justice system and prejudices the administration of justice and the filings of the State in this matter were made in bad faith with unclean hands, more specifically, absolutely filthy hands attempting to profit off of their ill-gotten gains with a void judgment.

STATE V. HUMINSKI WAS PROSECUTED IN THE ABSENCE OF ALL JURISDICTION

In Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 US 714, 732 (1878), the U.S. Supreme Court held that the judgment of a court lacking personal jurisdiction violated the Due Process. Huminski was not served by the State in State v. Huminski but was compelled to attend court proceedings in the quite irregularly initiated case, State v. Huminski, to avoid incarceration for failure to appear in the State's so-called "criminal" case absent any filing by the State initiating the prosecution. Accord Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247. See Exhibit "F".

HEARING OF CONTEMPT IS PRIVATE TO THE ALLEGEDLY OFFENDED COURT

The Florida Supreme Court held that the hearing and trying of contempt is private to the allegedly offended court in South Dade Farms v. Peters, 88 So. 2d 891 - Fla: Supreme Court 1956 while adopting U.S. Supreme Court precedent as follows:

"In the opinion last cited this court adopted the language of the Supreme Court of the United States in the leading case of Gompers v. Buck's Stove & Range Co., 221 U.S. 418, 31 S.Ct. 492, 501, 55 L.Ed. 797, from which we quote also the following:

"There has been general recognition of the fact that the courts are clothed with this power, and must be authorized to exercise it without referring the issues of fact or law to another tribunal or to a jury in the same tribunal. For, if there was no such authority in the first instance, there would be no power to enforce its orders if they were disregarded in such independent investigation. Without authority to act promptly and independently the courts could not administer public justice or enforce the rights of private litigants. Bessette v. W.B. Conkey Co., 194 U.S. 324 337, 24 S.Ct. 665, 48 L.Ed. [997] 1005."

in stark contrast to the hearing and conviction of Huminski in the Lee County Court for alleged contempt occurring before the 20th Circuit Court in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, AZ, et al., 17_CA-421, 20th Circuit, with a criminal prosecution brought in State v. Huminski, Lee County Court. Accord Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247. A court of inferior jurisdiction heard a Circuit Court contempt case without any statutory authority in a so-called “criminal” misdemeanor case (indicated by the “MM” designation and the State being named as Plaintiff) whereby he was placed on pre-trial supervision and assessed every cost and fee applicable only to criminal prosecutions (crimestoppers fund, costs of prosecution, etc.). The State was not a party in Huminski v. Gilbert, but, by an unknown yet, patently illegal scheme, bullied its way into the position of Plaintiff absent the filing of a shred of paper commencing State v. Huminski.

The dissent in TYRONE JENKINS, Appellant, v. STATE OF FLORIDA, Appellee, No. 4D20-1171 [June 23, 2021] clearly drives the point home concerning subject matter jurisdiction in contempt cases stating in pertinent part,

“Appellant was convicted of indirect criminal contempt for sending an expletive-laced diatribe to a circuit court judge after the judge dismissed his civil case, accusing the judge of incompetence and impugning his integrity. On appeal, appellant claims that the county court judge who tried the contempt proceeding lacked subject matter jurisdiction. I agree that the county court lacked jurisdiction, and I would reverse.”

Accord Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247. See Exhibit “F”.

The State’s own admission that at least one of the fees imposed upon Huminski at “criminal” conviction in State v. Huminski did not apply to contempt is compelling, stating in pertinent part in the State of Florida brief filed in Huminski v. State, 2D19-1912, Florida Attorney General, 2/21/2020, “ISSUE FOUR WHETHER THE TRIAL COURT ERRED IN IMPOSING A $50 COST OF PROSECUTION FOR THE OFFENSE OF CRIMINAL CONTEMPT.

[RESTATED].

Appellant’s fourth claim, that the court impermissibly imposed a cost of prosecution in this case, appears to have merit. Because contempt is a common law crime and the statutes governing contempt do not explicitly allow for the cost of prosecution to be imposed, Appellee concedes that this cost was seemingly imposed in error and the case should be remanded for the limited purpose of striking the cost from Appellant’s judgment and sentence. “

Apparently, the author of the above didn’t get the memo that the Rule of Law in State v. Huminski was to be ignored and illegal governmental conduct covered-up.

As this case exemplifies, in criminal justice matters, the State rarely admits error and uses the power of criminal prosecution as a tool of terror. Notable, is the State's characterization of contempt as a "crime" when in reality, under Florida authority, it is a sui generis common law offense. The confusion concerning contempt extends to the Florida Attorney General's office.

BAD FAITH

At hearing in this matter, the presiding judge asked the State if they wanted her to dismiss on their other paper as well which would have brought in the merits. The State informed the court that they did not wish that motion, filed weeks before the granted motion, to be heard. This maneuver by the State was solely intended as a backup plan to extend litigation unnecessarily. A technique employed by defendants with deep pockets to wear out and adversary and outspend an adversary that doesn't have endless funding from the State treasury. This scheme, used in a quasi-criminal context such as the instant case, has no place in a civilized society and offends public policy.

LEGISLATIVE INTENT

The State's use of the vexatious litigant statute to protect, preserve, enforce and profit from a hopelessly void criminal judgment was never a notion that the legislative branch had contemplated or would endorse.

As held by the Florida Supreme Court in Borden v. East-European Ins. Co., 921 So. 2D 587,

"It is a fundamental principle of statutory interpretation that legislative intent is the "polestar" that guides this Court's interpretation. See State v. J.M., 824 So.2d 105, 109 (Fla.2002); Reynolds v. State, 842 So.2d 46, 49 (Fla.2002)."

CONCLUSION

The aforementioned constitutes an abuse of the power of criminal prosecution that shocks the conscience and epitomizes a manifest injustice. This conduct also constitutes bad faith and unclean hands on the part of the State of Florida related to these matters. The State can request no relief from this Court or the Court Below pursuant to unclean hands concerning their conduct attempting to breathe life into a hopelessly void judgment and continual attempts to enforce the void judgment and profit from it in their ongoing collection activities. The State's filings in this matter seeking relief from this Court were filed in bad faith with unclean hands. The late Mr. Steele asserted the same in his paper requesting attorney fees.

WHEREFORE, the Court should, based upon the aforementioned,

1. Find the State has proceeded in this appeal and in the Court below with unclean hands by attempting to breathe life into a hopelessly void judgment and continuing to pursue enforcement and collection activities related to the void judgment and/or
2. Enjoin the State from continuing any activities that attempt to breathe life into a void judgment, collect on the judgment or enforce the judgment and/or
3. Summarily reverse this case with instructions to grant all relief sought in the Court below and/or
4. The Court should invoke its inherent supervisory and disciplinary powers and/or
5. The Court should find the State's conduct in bad faith with unclean hands because the ruling in Huminski v. State, 2d19-1247 (Exhibit "F"), clearly holds that contempt is private to the offended court, not a court of inferior jurisdiction, and the State positions are vexatious and frivolous given well-established and overwhelming authority and/or
6. Grant any other relief the Court deems fair and just or as a sanction including the striking of the papers filed by the State in this matter. Ironically, the State couldn't bother to file a proper commencement document in State v. Huminski, but, now files volumes to protect the void judgment burdening this and the lower court worthy of the most severe of sanctions. A judgment issued in the absence of any and all jurisdiction simply can not be remedied with additional volumes of paper filed by the State.
7. Huminski requests oral argument related to this motion.

Appellant advises the Appellees to treat this paper as a motion for sanctions under F.S. § 57.105 and are given safe harbor for 21 days as an opportunity to withdraw their frivolous and vexatious papers filed in this appeal.

SCOTT HUMINSKI,) Number: 3d21-1920
v.)
STATE OF FLORIDA, ET AL,)
APPELLEES.)

AFFIDAVIT OF S. HUMINSKI #2 RE: State’s forgery of court orders/unclean hands

NOW COMES, Appellant Scott Huminski (“Huminski”), and, under oath, hereby states, deposes and swears as follows:

1. The State of Florida used a forged document to commence State v. Huminski, 17-MM-815 which is the gravamen of the matter below which is a collateral attack upon a void ab initio judgment that was the product of the State’s reliance upon a forged commencement document in State v. Huminski.
2. Huminski’s Affidavit of Scott Huminski Re: State’s forgery of court orders/unclean hands, filed in this matter on 2/28/2022, is a true and correct depiction of the forgeries used by the State in State v. Huminski to pursue a criminal prosecution and obtain a criminal conviction in the Lee County Court when the alleged contempt arose in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al., 17-CA-421, 20th Circuit Court.
3. State criminal prosecutions such as State v. Huminski do not arise in the State of Florida from contempt in a civil matter to which the State was never a party such as Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al..
4. The State bullied it’s way into State v. Huminski with forged charging instruments in an extreme abuse of the power of criminal prosecution.
5. In State v. Huminski, no State prosecutor authored a charging document and no commencement document exists containing the signature of a State prosecutor only a show cause order with the judicial signature “lifted” from a Circuit Court order in Huminski v. Town of Gilbert, et al..

RECEIVED, 03/07/2022 08:00:21 PM, Clerk, Third District Court of Appeal

6. In State v. Huminski, the show cause order which is the only commencement document that remotely resembles a commencement document does not list the State of Florida as a party.
7. How the State managed to get a case entitled State v. Huminski docketed remains a mystery absent the State's filing of any commencement document in the case.
8. This appeal is solely the product of Appellant's counsel failing to appear in the case subsequent to their retention on September 17, 2021 and noticed on that same day as truthfully portrayed in the docket below and the record on appeal which is the same day the granted motion (subject of this appeal) was filed by the State. Appellants counsel did file an appearance, too little too late, a few hours after the dispositive hearing (AKA Status Conference) on September 21st
9. Huminski noticed the Court again on September 20, 2021 in writing memorialized on the docket below and verbally informed the Court below at the Status Conference (sua sponte converted to a dispositive motion hearing) of the retention of counsel 4 days earlier.
10. The only response Huminski proffered to the granted motion to dismiss filed on September 17, 2021 were the verbal and written notices of retention of counsel filed and presented to the Court below detailed in the prior 2 paragraphs.
11. The State's filings in this matter (upon information and belief with unclean hands) are an attempt to breathe life into the hopelessly void judgment from State v. Huminski which was not commenced with a proper pleading filed by the State nor did any initial pleading list the State as a plaintiff.
12. The State's filings in this matter (upon information and belief with unclean hands) are an attempt to profit from ill-gotten gains related to the void judgment in State v. Huminski.
13. The State's filings in this matter (upon information and belief with unclean hands) are an attempt to cover-up the forgeries they used in State v. Huminski.

14. Upon information and belief the State's conduct before this Court related to their attempts to protect the void ab initio judgment in State v. Huminski is conduct that shocks the conscious and constitutes a manifest injustice.
15. On 9/21/2021 after dismissal at the status hearing, Huminski requested counsel to file for emergency relief to stop the State's continuing activities to collect on the judgment in State v. Huminski and Huminski received no response from counsel, only silence.
16. On multiple occasions since September 21, 2021, Huminski requested counsel to seek relief in this Court to place the parties in status quo related to the judgment in State v. Huminski to stop harassment, collection activities and prejudice from the government and received no response, only silence.
17. Huminski has not conferred once with counsel that produced a meaningful response from counsel that addressed any of Huminski's concerns.
18. All legal fees paid to counsel went to a tightly held corporation of Ronald Humphreys, Lawstaff, Inc., headquartered at the home of Mr. Humphreys quite contrary to an attorney's ethical duty to safeguard client funds.
19. Upon information and belief Mr. Humphrey's is engaging in the criminal Unauthorized Practice of Law because no licensed attorney would advise a client to attend a hearing pro se when a vexatious litigant issue was pending in a court proceeding.
20. Mr. Humphreys did advise me to attend the hearing of September 21, 2021 pro se, advice that cause the dismissal of the case below and forced this very unnecessary appeal prejudicing the administration of justice constituting UPL as this advice certainly did not come from Mr. Steele nor would it come from any licensed attorney in Florida.
21. Upon information and belief Florida attorneys do not engage in the neglect of a legal matter entrusted to them or engage in malpractice, however, non-attorney Mr. Humphreys, or his corporation that collects legal fees, Lawstaff, Inc., is not bound by any attorney ethical precepts because he is not an attorney nor is Lawstaff, Inc. that collected all legal fees in this case.

22. Huminski has requested that Attorney Steele explain why all legal fees paid in this matter went to Mr. Humphreys' corporation Lawstaff, Inc. and got no response, only silence.
23. This appeal is solely the result of UPL or neglect of a legal matter entrusted to either Mr. Humphreys or Mr. Steele and malpractice and has created a burden on this Court.
24. On this date, I once again requested Mr. Steele and Mr. Humphreys to move to strike or seek a similar sanction regarding today's State filing in this matter pursuant to unclean hands/bad faith and got no response. I also previously received no response when I asked both men to challenge the State's Answer brief under unclean hands and received no response, only silence.
25. I have never spoken to Attorney Steele and I don't know the man and don't believe an attorney-client relationship exists especially since all legal fees were paid to Mr. Humphreys' corporation.
26. I intend to file a UPL complaint concerning Mr. Humphreys and possibly an ethics complaint concerning Mr. Steele (if he indeed is counsel on this appeal), however Mr. Humphreys threatened me today via email to end my inquiries into the aforementioned issues which may be construed as obstruction of justice concerning forthcoming complaints to authorities.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

The petition for writ of prohibition and in the alternative for writ of mandamus is granted. As this court concludes that it has jurisdiction over the appeal of case 17-MM-815, the Appellate Division of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit Court for Lee County shall immediately transfer the appeal of that case to this court. Although it appears that a given court must address its own contempt cases, § 38.22, Fla. Stat. (2018) ("Every court may punish contempts against it . . ." (emphasis added)), we additionally rely on the series of administrative orders issued by the Chief Judge of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit appointing all county judges as acting circuit judges, beginning with the order signed on December 2 and filed on December 5, 2016, in Book 60, Page 124 of the clerk's records, such that the disposition order in case 17-MM-815 may be considered an order of the circuit court.
